

PROVISIONAL TIMETABLE

Saturday 17th February 2024

08.00	Registration and Coffee
08.45	Welcome and Introduction	Gillian Higgins
09.10	Whose problem is it anyway? Leadership in ensuring a Good Life for horses	Nic De Brauwere
10.00	Can performance and longevity be predicted by assessment of conformation?	Dr Sue Dyson
11.00	Break
11.45	Understanding Laterality - improving our training by understanding the science	Dr Russell Mackechnie-Guire
12.45	Lunch
14.00	The Science behind Training Aids - pole work and other conditioning exercises.	Dr Russell Mackechnie-Guire
14.50	Break
15.30	Recognising Clinically Depressed Horses	Dr Sebastian McBride
16.10	Training for the Future: Can horsemanship improve us as well as horses?	Kelly Marks
16.50	Panel Session	All Speakers
17.30	Close

Sunday 18th February 2024

08.00	Registration and Coffee
08.50	Welcome and Introduction	Gillian Higgins
09.10	Dental problems in young horses, and the relation to starting ridden work	Dr Chris Pearce
10.00	Feeding for the Future	Prof Meriel Moore Colyer
11.00	Break
11.45	Do developmental abnormalities of the cervical vertebra predispose to neck pain, neck stiffness, forelimb lameness or ataxia?	Dr Sue Dyson
12.45	Lunch
14.00	Angular Limb Deformities and Common Developmental Issues: How and when to intervene?	Dr Simon Curtis
15.00	Break
15.40	How did we get here? Horse breeding in the modern age – risks and rewards for people and horses	Nic De Brauwere
16.20	Panel Session	All Speakers
17.00	Close	